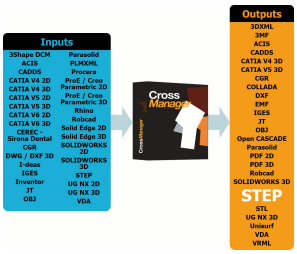
Datakit offers users of CrossManager STEP format export at no additional cost



The STEP format export of CrossManager, which used to be an option, is now integrated in the foundation package. All new purchasers of CrossManager, as well as current users with an up to date maintenance, are thus able to export their files in this format with immediate effect!

CrossManager is an essential and affordable solution to enable companies of all sizes to equip themselves with a conversion tool allowing them to respond to the immediate needs of exchanging CAD data and to ensure the future of their data.
